

Lusitania Not Armed, Wilson's Note to Germany

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 4.—President Wilson's second note to Germany was approved in principle at today's Cabinet meeting, and will be forwarded to Berlin as soon as the President has had opportunity to make certain changes in phraseology.

The note, it became known after the meeting, will be vigorous in tone and will deny allegations in the last German communication that the Lusitania was armed and carrying explosives prohibited by American law.

Counsellor Lansing, as the president's chief adviser on questions of international law, sat in today's cabinet meeting. Previously he has attended only in the absence of Secretary Bryan.

While the president and cabinet were discussing the note, a German agent was on his way to Berlin to present a first-hand report of the interview which Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, had Wednesday with President Wilson.

Officials at the German embassy refused to discuss that development, but it became known authoritatively that Meyer Gerhardt, who sailed from New York yesterday for Copenhagen on the steamer United States with a guarantee of safe conduct obtained by the American government from the allies, is the man. He is an attaché of the German colonial office and has been in the United States several months representing the German Red Cross.

The dispatch of the envoy was the basis of much confidence in German quarters here where it was believed an understanding on submarine warfare satisfactory to both Germany and the United States could be evolved. The day's meeting began with all members practically agreed that the United States can not consider the German reply responsive and must insist, before diplomatic correspondence can proceed further, upon an affirmative or negative answer to the principle that lives of non-combatants can not lawfully be imperiled on the high seas, but must be transferred to safety before a legitimate prize is destroyed.

NO CHANGE IN PLAN. The purpose of the United States is to keep its rejoinder on the same plan as the note of May 13. Should a negative answer be received diplomatic relations, it is believed generally, could not be continued. An affirmative reply would make possible a discussion of the facts in individual cases that have occurred.

The American point of view, briefly, is not the complete abandonment of submarine warfare, but its modification to such an extent as would make submarines act as do other warships in dealing with the enemy's commerce. Some arrangement whereby merchant ships carrying passengers would be definitely known as unarmed vessels is one of the proposals which made public. The stock dividend increases the holdings of Henry Ford, president of the company by $27,840,000. James Couzens, vice-president, receives $5,000,000. The stock increase brings the issued capital stock of the company to a valuation of $50,000,000. The remaining $50,000,000, it was announced, will remain in the company's treasury "to be used as conditions demand in the future."

DETROIT, June 4.—The Ford Motor Company announced today it has increased its authorized capital stock from $2,000,000 to $100,000,000 and has declared a stock dividend of $48,000,000, payable July 1.

Carranza Makes Desperate Efforts to Relieve Want

Men, Women and Children Loot Shops in Monterey

U. S. ATTITUDE PEEVES BERLIN NEWSPAPER

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, June 4.—British authorities in Mexico City are arranging to take out foreigners by horseback and automobile to points from which there is train service to Vera Cruz. The Brazilian minister in charge of American interests reported today that a Mr. Cummings, a former British consul, would start Tuesday with a party on horseback for Pachuca. The British charge d'affaires will take a party of foreigners Wednesday to Pachuca by automobile.

President Wilson's statement was delivered yesterday in Mexico City for transmission to Generals Garza and Zapata. Department officials believe it has by this time been delivered to General Villa and therefore is in the hands of all the Mexican leaders.

Dispatches to the Carranza agency here from Vera Cruz indicate that Carranza has begun taking steps to distribute food. One dispatch received today says:

"President Wilson's note was received Thursday and is being given great consideration on all sides. Eight thousand sacks of corn will arrive here today and Constitutionalist authorities will sell it to bakers at cost and they will retail at minimum price. Carranza is making every effort to handle food situation and so far has successfully done so."

General Angeles, telegraphing from field headquarters near Leon, reported to the Villa agency here that Oregon's army, after defeat, now is in its last entrenchment at Trinidad and that Villa, in command of the left wing, is leading an enveloping movement which has thrown the Carranza forces out of Silao and toward Irapuato and La Piedad.

KILLING FOLLOWS RIOTS

LAREDO, Tex., June 4.—Tales of hunger, rioting, looting, and bloodshed, subsequent to the evacuation of Monterey by Villa troops were told today by passengers arriving here from that city. It is declared that five rioters were killed and twelve wounded by Rafael Ferrigno, an Italian subject, when a mob attempted to raid his tailoring establishment. Ferrigno is said to have been imprisoned.

A police force organized by the Villa authorities prior to the evacuation, the arrivals declare, proved powerless to check the disorder, but after three days of lawlessness vigilance committees made up of Mexicans and foreigners are reported to have brought "order by drastic methods. Men, women and children participated in the riots."

According to an American passenger who reached here today, the last trainload of Villa troops left Monterey May 18. The starving people then started out in large bodies to loot bakery, grocery, and butcher shops. Exorbitant prices were being demanded by merchants.

ORDERS TO SHOOT

Prior to evacuation orders were given that looters be shot down and this was done in several instances, both by the police and the vigilance committees. When the Constitutionalist forces entered the city and took control of the situation the mob was said to have prepared for a struggle. This was denied and orders were issued to shoot down any one guilty of vandalism.

The Constitutionalist forces at Monterey are estimated at from 3,000 to 5,000. They are endeavoring to bring about normal conditions.

Several cargoes of food supplies have been received from the American Red Cross and have been distributed under the supervision of American Consulate-General Hannaford. Exorbitant prices were demanded by natives, free transportation being furnished to the border by the military authorities.

Severe fracture of the skull. Left arm severed at elbow. Right hand mashed to pulp. Thirteen cuts on body, requiring 300 inches of suturing silk to close.

An ordinary man would have died under the punishment, hospital surgeons said, but Abromam, hero of many fights with revolvers, knives and clubs, has a chance to recover.

Ledesma required no surgical attention.

DANIELS GIVES MIDDIES WAR TALK

Secretary Addresses Graduating Class of Naval Academy and Makes Predictions.

By Associated Press. ANNAPOLIS, Md., June 4.—Prediction that war aircraft in the not distant future, will be as fearful engines of destruction as the dreaded undersea craft, was made by Secretary Daniels in addressing the graduating class of the naval academy today.

"In the European war," he said, "there have been no surprises, no startling victories, no crushing defeats, but the character of battles that were fought in trench warfare, unwarfare has passed away. The methods of the flanking movement have been seriously impaired. Why? The soaring scout cars, messages from trench to trench, the sudden alarms that resulted in the routing of mighty armies became ancient history when the modern engine and gasoline enabled man to conquer the regions of the air."

Secretary Daniels spoke of the marvelous development of the submarine and added:

"Almost daily you are startled to read of the torpedoing of a mighty vessel, these small undersea silencers, these submarines, these craft of steel, their deadly work and disappearance in a moment, challenge the world's wonder."

"It seems only a few years ago that we were wondering if the submarine would become a really important part of the fleet. Today many are seriously debating whether our giant craft will continue to be the backbone of the squadrons that constitute a country's protection."

The last Congress expressed its faith in the submarine by voting the money to build twenty-six new submarines, three of them to be sea-going, of a size and power never before contemplated. What of the future of this newest naval arm? He would be a rash man who would, in prophecy, limit its possibilities."

Tsing-Tau Refugees Bound for This Port

By Associated Press. TOKIO, June 4.—The Pacific Mail Steamship Company's liner Korea, which sails tomorrow from Yokohama for San Francisco, will have on board 75 Chinese refugees, mostly persons who were in Tsing-Tau during the siege and who have been released by the Japanese authorities. They include Mrs. Meyer Waldeck, wife of the German governor of Kiau Chow, and a number of medical officers and hospital attendants. When the Korea came into Yokohama harbor the Japanese naval authorities examined all her passengers carefully in the belief that some members of the crew of the German torpedo boat C-20, interned in China, might be on board.

KAISER TO PAY FOR SHIP

To Recompense America for Torpedoing of Gulf Light

Note From Ambassador Informs Government of Negotiations

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, June 4.—Ambassador Gerard cabled the State Department today a note from the German government agreeing to pay an indemnity for the damage done by a German submarine to the American steamer Gulf Light, torpedoed off the Scilly Islands.

The note was brief and stated that the ship had been torpedoed by mistake in the belief that, being accompanied by British patrol boats, she was a belligerent vessel, and adding that the commander did not see the American flag until after the torpedo was fired. The communication agreed to the principle of indemnity, asking the American government to present on behalf of the owners the usual claim.

In the note was also an expression of regret at the occurrence. That in conformity with the procedure which Germany announced in a circular on May 11 would be followed in the case of neutral vessels attacked by mistake.

Czar Permits U. S. to See Detention Camps

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, June 4.—Emperor Nicholas of Russia has responded favorably to President Wilson's personal letter conveying a request by Austria that provision be made for inspecting Siberian camps where Austrian prisoners are held.

Following unsuccessful negotiations through usual diplomatic channels, Dr. Constantin Dumba, the Austrian ambassador here, asked President Wilson about two months ago to send a personal letter to Emperor Nicholas. The request was the result of reports that Austrian civilians and prisoners of war were not getting proper treatment. The Austrian government asked that the inspection be conducted by American Red Cross agents.

The answer, delayed because of the absence of the Emperor from Petrograd, was brought here today by Ray Baker, private secretary to Ambassador Mayne.

U. S. TO LEAD WORLD IN POWER

By Associated Press. CONGRESSMAN JAMES R. MANN.

Predictions that the United States will not become involved in the present world struggle; that the country will in the not distant future be the leading power of the world, and that the Pacific Coast in general and California particularly will be the center of the world's civilization and culture were features of a remarkable address made by Congressman James R. Mann of Illinois at a luncheon of members of the Oakland Commercial Club in the Hotel Oakland today.

"In the very near future," he said, "there will be a long, long conflict of commerce, at least, across the ocean. We will come in competition with those on the other side. It is our duty, especially that of the people on the coast backed up by those of the eastern states, to maintain inviolate our own American civilization against any adverse outside influence. I hope that the conflict will be a peaceable one."

NO OCCASION FOR WAR.

"While it is necessary for a great nation like ours to be prepared for war, I see absolutely no occasion for war. I do not think that the United States at this time has any need to fear war on either the Atlantic or the Pacific sides. Some there are who are discussing it at this time, but I do not think that a man in power in our country would have the power today to drive us into a useless war, and war with any European country would be useless. We can maintain our rights without waiting either money or blood in war."

"I regret the European war and I sincerely wish that it could be stopped, but I am firmly convinced that while they're fighting this country ought to make use of the opportunity to take the commerce of the world away from them. We can now capture the markets of the world—South America, Europe and Asia."

THROTTLE CAPITAL.

"For many years we have been endeavoring to throttle capital in our country. If we are wise today we will encourage the combination of capital to put our produce in all of the markets of the world. This cannot be done by individuals, co-partnerships or small corporations. It will take great genius, great capital, great development and power to do this. We should invite our men and money to combine to extend our markets instead of threatening them with the penitentiary whether they are successful or losers."

"You men of California are doing wonderful thinking. You are achieving with your thinking. God knows, I hope your thinking won't extend too far east. You have wonderful opportunities here. Oakland is destined to be one of the greatest seaports and industrial centers in the entire United States. You have the location, the facilities and the men who can do these things."

"The Pacific ocean will in the very near future be the big shipping point for the world's commerce, just as the Atlantic ocean is at the present time. This great West is facing an era of wonderful development and civilization."

Congressman Mann, who is the minority leader in the lower House, paid tribute to former Congressman Joseph R. Knowland, who was present. He also devoted five minutes to lauding Senator George C. Perkins.

The luncheon was one of the biggest in the Commercial Club's history. President Victor H. Metcalf, an old friend of Congressman Mann's, presided. Among the distinguished guests present were Congressman J. Arthur Elliott, Postmaster J. J. Bonborough, Francis B. Loomis, C. H. McCook, Mayor Frank E. McMillen, C. C. Chapman, A. S. Lavenston and Judge W. H. Donahue.

ADVANCING ON LEMBERG

By Associated Press. LONDON, June 4.—The words "Przemysl lost" constitute the leading headlines in English newspapers today. A decisive conclusion to the entire Russian campaign in Galicia is in sight.

Flanking Movement Expected to Recover Long Lost City

By Associated Press. AUSTRO-HUNGARIAN FIELD HEADQUARTERS, June 4, via London, 4:55 p. m.—According to information given out by the Austro-Hungarian military authorities to representatives of the press, heavy fighting is now in progress along the entire Galician frontier, and the general situation is very favorable to the Austro-Germans. A decisive conclusion to the entire Russian campaign in Galicia is in sight.

Now that Przemysl has fallen, rendering it possible for General Mackensen to continue his movement eastward, he would naturally meet a check at the Russian fortified positions, partly composed of a chain of lakes extending north and south, about 18 miles west of Lemberg, which has been in Russian hands since September. It is thought, however, that these positions will prove untenable because General Linington, having crossed the Dniester to the west of Mikolajow, will likely cut the communications with Lemberg.

The Austro-German plan of operation against Lemberg apparently is the same as against Przemysl. They are expected to throw columns on both sides of the city and then press together some distance beyond it. In the meantime this movement seems to threaten the Russians fighting around Sadowna with a loss of contact with the main body.

STUDIES FOOD BEST FOR TREES

Virginia Sends Aboriculture Expert to the University of California.

BERKELEY, June 4.—How to feed trees is as important a problem for the fruit grower as how to feed human beings is for the general community. To help find out how to obtain normal and healthy growth of oranges and lemons, and how to keep them free from insect pests and fungus diseases, so that the people of California may be better and more abundantly fed, a plant physiologist of national reputation will in the near future join the staff of the citrus experiment station, maintained by the University of California at Riverside. This is Dr. Howard Sprague Reed, for the past seven years professor of plant pathology and bacteriology in the Virginia experiment station.

The physiological problems of fruits and vegetables, their diseases, and hygiene for the plant have been the subject of a large number of important scientific papers published by Professor Reed since his graduation from the University of Michigan in 1903. In 1907 he won the degree of Ph. D. at the University of Missouri, after receiving special training in botany and organic chemistry and at the same time serving as acting professor of botany there. He was scientist in soil fertility investigations of the bureau of soils of the United States Department of Agriculture from 1906 to 1909. In 1912 he went to the biological station at Naples, Italy, to investigate problems in plant pathology. He spent the next year in Strasburg, Germany, pursuing investigations in physiological chemistry under H. H. Seng.

Among the 60 or more scientific papers which Professor Reed has published are numerous contributions to knowledge and to successful practical practice in such subjects as the chemical problems of health and disease in plants, tomato blight, the club-root disease of the cabbage root, foliage diseases of the apple, factors which favor injury from spraying, the effect of lime on the growth of citrus fruits, the control of the cedar rust of apples, premature blossoming of the apple, induced by black rot, and the planting and care of shade trees.

Professor Reed is to share in the important researches being carried on at the university's citrus experiment station at Riverside, by a large staff of scientists, headed by Dean H. J. Webber. Already the station has demonstrated the great value of growing lemons in cover crops in citrus groves; has demonstrated by eight years of experiment with fertilizers commonly used; and has with fertilizers for citrus groves what the comparative value of the different fertilizers commonly used; and has citrus fruits. Important experiments are being made, also, in the breeding of new citrus varieties by hybridization.

An experiment in progress in Riverside is the study of the effects of various treatments for retaining old citrus groves in good productive condition and preventing the development of "mistle leaf." This work will show much light on problems of soil treatment, water penetration, the availability of plant food, etc. Another extensive experiment is in regard to the comparative value of various root stocks for the propagation of citrus trees. A successful method of treatment has been found for gummosis for lemons and oranges, by the use of Bordeaux paste, and three pathologists are investigating the cottony root, root rot, various fruit spots, crown gall and peachy bark, and other diseases of citrus trees. Methods of controlling the black scale, the most serious pest of citrus fruits and the aphid affecting walnuts are being studied.

California walnut growers have in the past been planting their walnut groves with seedlings. Now the university is studying the enormous variations in season, productivity, quality of fruit, susceptibility to disease, and other qualities which appear in different strains of the walnut, the use of which will give better and more productive walnut groves to the horticulturists of California.

man forces had made around that stronghold has been drawn to a straight line. At the same time to the southeast city has been left behind as General von Linsingen's forces are pushing their way northwards towards the Dniester, with Lemberg presumably as their objective, seeking to avoid the great marshes to the west. It is reported that some of these forces have already reached the Dniester line near Mikolajow, with Lemberg only about 35 miles away.

To the north of Przemyśl General Mackensen is now safe, having dared to essay to drive a wedge between the Russian army on the lower San and the fortress and made good.

The belief here is that the Germans have set their heart upon Lemberg and that they will not for some time be content to assume the defensive. Some commentators suggest today that the allies in the west will now initiate an offensive movement in the hope of relieving the pressure on the Russians.

HORROR IN TORPEDO'S WAKE

LONDON, June 4.—Two Welsh trawlers have been sunk by German submarines—the Herford of Cardiff and the Victoria of Milford. The Herford was sent to the bottom about 150 miles southwest of Lundy Island and the Victoria 135 miles from St. Ann's Head.

Several men on board the Victoria were killed by shells from the submarine. The remainder of the ship's company and the crew of the Herford have landed at Milford.

Huddleston, a member of the crew of the Victoria, who was seriously injured, said the submarine, the U-34, fired at the trawler. The men on board thought the boat came from a patrol boat which was engaged with a submarine. Then a shot smashed a small boat and the crew realized that the submarine was after the Victoria. A boy of 12 was put on the bridge and the crew were told to lash a life raft together for use in case of necessity.

ECONOMY IS URGED BY HORNER

Can Cut 50 Cents From Tax Rate With Expense Reduction, Declared.

In anticipation of the budget for the coming fiscal year which will be presented to the Board of Supervisors before July 1, County Assessor C. F. Horner, who is closely in touch with financial conditions as affecting this community, today issued a statement which is a plea for a curtailment of expenses in the affairs of the county government.

In view of an increased tax delinquency this year and the likelihood that the tax rate will be increased rather than diminished if present plans for the budget are carried out, Assessor Horner points out the facts of conditions as they exist in this county as elsewhere in the state and country.

"When individuals are economizing the governing bodies should curtail expenses," declared Assessor Horner.

"Owing to the money stringency and lack of demand for labor, the taxpayer has found it impossible to pay his taxes, and hence has been forced to allow them in some instances to become delinquent."

"The high cost of living, the great European war, closing or curtailing work in the large manufacturing establishments and no demand for labor, are some of the causes of hard times."

"Labor is not receiving its wage; merchants are unable to meet expenses; landlords have voluntarily reduced rents and leases but it is certainly true that many of our business houses are receiving reduced salaries rather than leave their positions, all on account of lack of business."

"Therefore, to meet these conditions thus forced upon us has been the duty of the taxpayer to keep the taxation of property as low as possible. This will afford but small relief, if any, to the individual taxpayer, be he large or small, and the only relief possible is the reduction of the tax rate by the elimination of every item of expense except that which is absolutely necessary."

"The City Commissioners, the Board of Supervisors and the Board of Education should bend every effort toward the curtailment of expenses."

URGES COMMITTEE REPORT.

"The budget for the fiscal year should be submitted to a committee of our businessmen and by them carefully reviewed and recommended to the proper body for the elimination of such portions of the budget that are not actually necessary at this time."

"The taxpayer is the last one to complain of his taxes when times are good and does his part cheerfully; but now that business is depressed, money scarce, men and women out of work, there should be an incentive to our tax-making bodies to help tide over this condition by giving to the people the lowest tax rate possible."

VALUATIONS DORMANT.

"In view of the fact that valuations are dormant at this time it would be appropriate that taxes should go down instead of up."

"It believes that 50 cents can be cut off the tax rate without any serious detriment. Out of everything that is not absolutely necessary until the times improve and the money market is easier."

Assessor Horner explained that it is not his intention to exaggerate conditions but that he feels that a plain statement of facts at this time is necessary if the best results are to be obtained and the greatest relief possible offered taxpayers and the community at large.

BORAH IS COMPLIMENTARY.

BOISE, Idaho, June 4.—Senator William E. Borah today gave out the following statement on President Wilson's new policy in Mexico:

"If this is the first step in the repudiation of the policy of this government, with respect to Mexico during the last three years, the President is to be most sincerely congratulated. We need not question or doubt the good intentions with which this policy was inaugurated, but that it is time to end fear, it would seem, should doubt. No one has stated the consequences of this policy more pointedly than the President in his statement and it would seem that the statement is a repudiation of the old policy."

"It has resulted in outrages and in indescribable treatment of American women, and in the murder of American men, in the demoralization of the republic of Mexico, in months of crime, chaos and at last starvation; in the impairment of our standing and dignity among other nations, and, were it to continue, it would render the Monroe doctrine an antique specimen of ineffective hypocrisy."

"This action upon the part of the President does not necessarily mean war with Mexico and all will hope that it will not lead to war. We have means of exerting our influence upon the situation in Mexico aside from the use of force, but it certainly means that whatever means shall be found necessary, in the name of American citizens and in the name of humanity, we're going to end that fearful and indescribable situation, for the continuance of which we can no longer escape responsibility."

"I repeat, what I have just said, that a nation which will not promptly protect the rights and lives of its people wherever they may be found, will come to humiliation and grief sooner or later."

OFFICIAL WAR STATEMENTS

By Associated Press.

PETROGRAD, via London, June 4.—Russian troops on the fronts to the north and west of the fortress of Przemyśl evacuated their positions Wednesday night after the war materials taken from the Austrians had been removed, according to an official statement issued last night by the Russian general staff. It is expected that after the capture of Jaroslavl and Radymno by the Austro-German forces, they began to spread along the west bank of the San, making the defense of Przemyśl a difficult task. The Russians contend they realized from the first that Przemyśl was incapable of defending itself and they remained there only as long as it served their purpose. The positions occupied around Przemyśl extended the Russian front by about 14 miles and the troops occupying them were exposed to a concentrated artillery fire. The text of the communication follows:

"We carried away from Przemyśl the materials taken from the Austrians. This finished, we removed on Tuesday the last of our batteries. The following night our troops, pursuant to orders, evacuated the fortress to the north and west of the positions surrounding the city and formed a more concentrated force to the east."

"Attacks delivered by the enemy Monday night between Przemyśl and the Dniester were repulsed."

"In the regions beyond the Dniester the enemy, concentrating important forces in the direction of Star, succeeded in advancing on the Dniester-Stry front. They sustained great losses, however, leaving a thousand prisoners in the course of our counter attacks."

"On the Switza-Lomnitsa front Monday we pressed the enemy on the Bystrica and successfully repulsed his attacks."

PARIS, June 4, 2:40 p. m.—The French war office gave out today the following statement on the progress of hostilities:

"To the east of the sugar refinery of Souchez our troops advancing in the direction of Souchez village captured a line of 14 machine guns and the enemy has established a position. We made about 50 men prisoners and captured three machine guns."

"Our troops furthermore made fresh progress in the 'labyrinth.'"

"Along the rest of the front there have been artillery exchanges."

Steel Stock Rises Following Decision

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, June 4.—The victory of the United States Steel Corporation in the government's dissolution suit caused an outburst of bullish enthusiasm at the opening of today's stock market.

Steel was the outstanding feature, although its initial quotation was somewhat belated. The first transaction consisted of one lot of 25,000 shares at 64 1/2 compared with yesterday's close of 59 3/8. The first transactions was 2000 shares at 62 1/2 followed by 1200 at 62 1/2 after which it reacted slightly. In the first five minutes 35,000 shares of steel changed hands.

United States steel preferred rose 2 1/2 points and throughout the list there were gains ranging from 1 to 4 points. International Harvester, whose affairs are now under federal review, opened with a gain of 1 1/2 points and American Car and Foundry, also being investigated by the federal government, opened with a sale of 7000 shares at 42 to 45, against yesterday's close of 39 3/8. Instillers securities advanced 8 points over yesterday.

Trading slackened toward the end of the first hour, but 200,000 shares of steel were traded, with the result that some early gains were altogether lost, while others were reduced to minor fractions. Steel held better than other leaders, yielding less than half its gain, but ending at 62 1/2, 5 points and 3/4 points respectively from their high prices.

WASHINGTON, June 4.—The full opinion of the Federal court deciding against the government in the steel corporation suit was laid today before Attorney-General Gregory. While officials of the department of justice would not say whether an appeal would be taken, it was generally expected that it would be carried to the supreme court.

BRIBERY AND EXTORTION CHARGED

Sheriff Davis, Attorney Hawkins and Another Accused by New York Man.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 4.—(Associated Press.)—A charge of bribery and extortion has been leveled against George T. Davis, sheriff of Stanislaus county, and A. W. Hawkins, an attorney, and A. A. Richards, theatrical man of Modesto, on complaint of William Anderson of New York who charges the three with feeding him of $400 and later offering him the amount as a bribe to refuse to sign a deposition in a civil suit against Richards.

The warrants were sworn to yesterday and allege that the extortion transaction took place in the office of Sheriff Fred Eggers of San Francisco. The three accused men, now in Modesto, deny the charges of Anderson, and say that they will fight them. Bail was fixed in each case at $1000.

Three of the warrants charge Sheriff Davis, Hawkins and Richards with extortion. Two others are lodged against Hawkins and Richards, and allege bribery.

The charges are the outgrowth of a transaction several months ago whereby Anderson agreed to purchase the Modesto Opera House, owned by Richards, for $14,000. Anderson paid $7000 down, agreeing to pay the remainder of the sum at the rate of $1000 monthly. The transaction was negotiated by Lubeck's Investment Company, a local firm. Anderson, after a suit, had the property restored to him.

CONTRACT FOR PIANO. In the meantime Lubeck's Investment Company had sued Richards for $1000, which, it was claimed, had been promised as a commission. The law firm of Levy & Lipman was retained by the brokers. Prior to defaulting on the theater payments, Anderson had entered into another contract with Richards for the purchase of a piano, to cost $75. At the time of defaulting, Anderson had not paid for the piano, and Richards sued for the amount of the purchase price, securing judgment.

Hawkins and Richards came to San Francisco yesterday. Later it developed that they were accompanied by Sheriff Davis. They went to the law firm of Levy & Lipman. There, Anderson, who contemplated leaving for the East, made his deposition. While he was doing Sheriff Davis appeared.

Anderson alleges that he was informed by Hawkins that a warrant for his arrest had been issued, and that he was to leave the state to defraud creditors. He was issued and was in the possession of Sheriff Davis. After making his deposition, Anderson was told to return to the offices of Levy & Lipman, in the Pacific building, at 4 o'clock, to swear to it. He says that Davis, Hawkins and Richards went with him from the office, that they took him to the office of Sheriff Eggers and there informed him that he would have to be searched for his valuables, which would be held as security for the judgment against him. Anderson declared that Hawkins informed him that if he would give Richards $400, the sheriff and Richards would "call it square."

PAID THE $400. Anderson swears that he protested, that he desired to communicate with his attorney, that this right was denied, and that finally he was compelled to give up $400, which he paid to Sheriff Davis and for which he got from Richards the following receipt:

"For and in consideration of the sum of $400, to A. A. Richards in hand paid, I do hereby acknowledge full payment of all sums due me and notes are canceled and judgment fully satisfied and warrant dismissed."

A. A. RICHARDS.

"June 2, 1915." The court order served by Sheriff Davis on Anderson was issued by Superior Judge L. W. Fulkerth of Modesto. It required simply that Anderson be brought before him. The duty of the sheriff, it is pointed out, was to produce the person of Anderson in Modesto.

On leaving Sheriff Eggers' office, Hawkins suggested to the complainant, according to Anderson, that he could probably get his $400 back from Richards if he would leave town that night without swearing to the deposition he had made in favor of Lubeck's demand for a commission.

Anderson is positive that Sheriff Eggers knew nothing of the transaction in his office, although he says Eggers saw him counting out the $400 paid to the three accused men.

ALLEGES BRIBERY. Anderson also alleges that Hawkins endeavored to prevent him from getting to Levy & Lipman's office at 4 o'clock to swear to the deposition. He says he went to luncheon with Davis, Hawkins and Richards, and after that he and Hawkins visited a motion picture show. When they left the movies they walked to the Pacific building. There Hawkins met Richards. The two went up to

LEMBERG IS NOW TEUTON OBJECTIVE

San Line Regarded as No Longer Tenable and Other Lines Trembling.

BERLIN, June 4.—(Associated Press.)—The fall of Przemyśl, to which the Austrian 12-inch mortars and the 11-inch howitzers of the Russian came as a surprise to limited circles in Berlin. It was known that in spite of the desperate exertions of the Russians, General Dumitrieff's army was not to show any offer of successful resistance. The capture of Przemyśl is looked upon as a preliminary in the campaign for Lemberg.

The San line is regarded as no longer tenable, and the Austro-German army is pushing forward toward a point to the rear of Lemberg and is now barely thirty-five miles southeast of Lemberg.

The fall of Przemyśl was due to the breach driven into the circle of forts from the north by the Bavarian 12-inch mortars. The capture of five works was almost five miles wide and big enough to drive a whole army through. The inner lines were, under the circumstances, utterly unable to resist the pressure. The garrison, by nightfall Wednesday, had been driven back to the outskirts of the city itself. The other forts of the fortress were exposed to attack from the rear, as well as the front and by dawn Thursday both fortress and town were restored to Russian rule.

The garrison at Przemyśl, according to reports received here, comprised at least two divisions of infantry, including regular line troops and newly raised imperial militia. The captives include a large number of stragglers and unorganized soldiers.

No report has yet been received as to the amount of artillery and stores captured, but it is thought that there was much artillery, because most of the Russian siege guns used in investing Przemyśl were mounted in the fortress.

A general school holiday has been proclaimed throughout Germany for Friday.

Zeppelin Penetrates Large Part of London

BERLIN, June 4.—(Associated Press.)—A wireless to London, June 4.—A Wolff bureau correspondent says he learns from a good source that in the last Zeppelin raid on London one airship reached Finchley, in the northern outskirts of London, and declares that it must therefore have flown over the greater part of the city.

The correspondent said he hears from the same source that the damage caused by the raid was much greater than has been announced.

Ammunition Supply Aids German Victory

LONDON, June 4.—(The Morning Post's Petrograd correspondent says) on the fact that the Germans seem to have an almost inexhaustible supply of all the important ammunition. By this alone, he says, they were enabled to make a good stand against the Russians, whose tactical dispositions apparently were made disadvantageously.

TURKS DESERT ARMY, SAYS PARIS REPORT

PARIS, June 4.—A dispatch to the Havas Agency from Athens under date of Thursday says:

"A telegram from Beirut, Syria, says that railroad communication, which has been temporarily interrupted by the transport of troops to Constantinople, has been reopened. Some 50,000 infantry and artillery have gone there. There are now about 15,000 men left in Syria, Palestine and Lebanon, who are averse to going to Constantinople and are deserting in large bodies."

"An allied aeroplane has flown from Nazareth. Neutrals just have been forbidden to leave Syria. Communication by mail and telegraph with places abroad has been suppressed."

AMSTERDAM TO PRESENT FLAG TO NEW YORK

NEW YORK, June 4.—The first orange, white and blue flag recently adopted as the official emblem of New York City, which will be raised over the city hall on June 24, will be a gift from the city of Amsterdam, Holland, from which New York took its original name of New Amsterdam. Announcement was made today that the acting mayor of New York had accepted the offer of the flag tendered through the consul-general of The Netherlands here.

Lever & Lipman's office and asked Anderson to wait for them below.

Anderson says he proposed to Hawkins that Richards return to him the $400 he had paid and give him a note for $100. "I told Hawkins," said Anderson, "that I felt Richards could afford to give me $100 extra in return for my leaving town without signing the deposition. Hawkins admitted to me that I had been 'trimmed,' but said it couldn't be helped, as an old California law, which few lawyers knew about, permitted persons to be searched for valuables in cases like mine."

GERARD BEFRIENDS ARRESTED WOMEN

WASHINGTON, June 4.—Ambassador Gerard at Berlin has cabled the State Department a report on the arrest recently at London of Germany, of Mrs. Harriet Boyce and daughter of San Francisco, who were charged with insulting a German officer.

The ambassador reported that Mrs. Boyce and Miss Boyce were accused of insulting a customs officer who examined their baggage. Despite the fact that the women claimed an insult was not intended and that the trouble was caused by Mrs. Boyce's misunderstanding of the German language, they were arrested and sentenced to three weeks' imprisonment.

The ambassador secured their release on $5000 bail, supplied by the United States consul at Munich.

Ambassador Gerard said he had taken up the matter with the German foreign office and hoped to arrange to have the sentences set aside. Mrs. Boyce and her daughter are in Munich.

Torpedoing of Ship Accident, Say Germans

CHRISTIANIA, June 4.—Germany has informed Norway that an investigation has shown that the Norwegian tank steamer Helldige was torpedoed accidentally by a German submarine. The communication says Germany deplores this fact and is willing to pay full compensation.

It proposes the appointment of a commission of Norwegian and German experts to fix the amount of compensation. Norway, it is said, has replied agreeing to the appointment of the experts.

Germany also has informed Norway that a thorough investigation has shown that the Norwegian steamer America was not sunk by a German submarine.

The steamer Helldige was torpedoed near Folkestone February 15 last. She was beached at Walmer and later unloaded her cargo in the Thames.

The steamer America was sunk in the North Sea May 5. Her crew was saved. At a naval investigation held at Christiania witnesses testified that the steamer had been destroyed by a torpedo.

Pro-German Rioters Amuck in Bucharest

LONDON, June 4.—Telegraphing from Bucharest the Daily Telegraph's correspondent says:

"The police have been compelled to interfere to prevent a pro-German demonstration in the streets and at the headquarters of the Conservative party. The Conservative party congress was meeting to consider the pro-German attitude of Alexander Marghiloman, one of the party's leaders. But the congress was unable to proceed, with its business owing to a lack of order. A Maximilianist agitator, who tried to incite the crowd, was hooted and his opponents.

PLAN CONCESSIONS TO HUNGARIAN PATRIOTS

LONDON, June 4.—Telegraphing from Budapest the Morning Post correspondent says:

"As a reward to Hungary's multi-farious nationalists for their war services, the government has drafted a bill modifying the restrictions under which many of these peoples hitherto have lived. The bill allows the Slav population considerable freedom, permits the use of the national language in schools and courts and provides for a new Rumanian university of Kronstadt. The bill has been received with violent opposition by the aristocracy. A last-minute change of the bill by the emperor to the Hungarian minority leaders were attempts to form a coalition cabinet."

German Asks Damage for Pre-War Outrage

PARIS, June 4.—A demand for indemnity for damage done German property in Milan during anti-German disorders has been addressed by Germany to the Italian government through the Swiss legation at Rome, says a Geneva dispatch to the Matin.

The demand is based on the fact that the Italian government had allowed the anti-German disorders to take place, and that the German property in Milan had been damaged as a result of these disorders.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 4.—Plunging from a scaffold on the building at 354 Pine street, this morning, A. Sayman, a contractor of 236 Persimmon avenue, Fruitvale, fell two stories to the pavement, incurring injuries which caused almost instant death.

Sayman had taken a contract to clean the front of the structure. He had erected a sloping staging and was doing his work alone. Rising from a sitting posture to adjust his scaffolding, he lost his footing. He fell headfirst and although he made strenuous effort to recover his balance, was hurled into space. A group of horrified bystanders on the sidewalk below, saw him vainly clutch at the crossboards and rushed to his side as he fell. His skull was fractured and many bones broken and when he reached the Harbor Hospital he was dead. He was about 45 years old and married.

Mrs. Beth Hughes, Edna O'Reilly and Clerk Albert Oehler were arrested by a posse of police last night at the Merritt hotel, Ninth and Franklin streets. The two women were charged with keeping a house of ill fame and the clerk with aiding and abetting. The police were looking for a violation of the ordinance which provides for a proper hotel register of guests being kept. The cases were continued by Judge Smith today for the filing of complaints.

Now Is the Time to Get Rid of These Ugly Spots.

There is no longer the slightest need of feeling ashamed of your freckles, as the greatest skin-removing strength is guaranteed to remove these homely spots. Simply get an ounce of othine—double strength—from any druggist and apply a little of it night and morning and you should soon see that even the worst freckles have begun to disappear, while the lighter ones have vanished entirely. It is seldom that more than an ounce is needed to completely clear the skin and gain a beautiful clear complexion. Be sure to ask for the double strength othine as this is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles. Advertisement.

POLICE! POLICE!
CRIED MRS. SMITH

Two Cities Respond to the Call and Find Supposed Thief Was Dummy.

Frankie calls to the police of Oakland and Piedmont that a burglar was concealed last night in the home of Mrs. D. Smith, a San Francisco broker, 1100 Webster street, Piedmont, brought several automobile loads of black clad officers to the scene. Mrs. Smith was being moved for by neighbors. She entered the house on her return home after being out all afternoon and evening, and had run against a man standing inside the front door. She then ran screaming to her neighbors.

The police surrounded the house. Sergeant Michael Byrne placed a detail at the rear door, and the Piedmont police guarded several windows. Then Byrne went to the front door, revolver in one hand, and flashlight in the other. He knocked on the door loudly and shouted: "Surrender."

There was no response.

Using a latch key given him by Mrs. Smith, Sergeant Byrne cautiously unlocked the door and threw it open, jumping out of the way of possible shots at the same time. The silence was unbroken.

Byrne reached round the door frame with his flashlight and turned the light inside, at the same time taking an eye. Then he jumped back. The man was there, standing inside the hallway.

"Surrender!" called the sergeant again. Still there was no response. Then a small boy's voice, squeaky with excitement, cried out:

"Why, it's Mr. Smith."

Byrne ventured inside and turned the full light of his electric flash in the face of the mysteriously silent intruder. Then he gasped. It was Mr. Smith to the life, even to his tie, and hat, and the

Reliability Explains
MAXWELL DAILY RUN

There are many factors which a man considers in the purchase of an automobile but for the ordinary purchaser three things stand out most prominently—low initial cost, small maintenance expense and the reliability of the car in actual service. It is truly remarkable that American mechanical genius has been able to accomplish all these things in the short space of fifteen years since the automobile industry sprang into existence. In the early days a man's trouble began when he cranked his engine. If he succeeded in starting it, his next task was to see if he could deliver the power to the rear wheels. At that time if a dealer could run his car as much as three miles on a demonstration he had a sale checked.

The Maxwell stock car which is now engaged in the Oakland to Sacramento run, making a mile every day for ten days—350 miles. A man must have a great deal of confidence in his product to put it through such a rigorous test, but Manager Nagel of the E. L. Pearson Auto Company, claims that the wonderful reliability record which the car has made on its first 130 miles, bears out his contention conclusively.

Drawings for seats in the car are held each evening previous to the trip in the Maxwell salesroom at 320 Broadway. If you want to take a nice week-end party, here is a good opportunity.

WOULD STAY WILSON'S NOTE.
By Associated Press.
SPOKANE, June 4.—The German-American Alliance of Spokane requested President Wilson by telegraph to defer definite action on the controversy with Germany over the Lusitania matter until all facts are ascertained.

Governor Whitman of N. Y. is Guest of Honor at Exposition.

TRIBUNE BUREAU, Panama-Pacific Exposition, June 4.—New York celebrated today at the exposition when Empire State day was staged with interesting exercises. Governor Charles S. Whitman of New York being the guest of the day. The exercises were formal. The governor's staff, in full uniform, attended him at the affair, and in the evening a dinner in honor of the New York executive and his wife will be held in the California building by the woman's board, followed by a ball at which the exposition directors and President Moore will entertain.

Governor Whitman was the principal speaker at the afternoon exercises, and President Moore presented the New York executive with a box of jewels, in imitation of the Tower of Jewels, as a souvenir. Governor Whitman, chairman of the New York, presided as chairman of the day. The other speakers were: President Moore, John H. Yale, vice-chairman of the New York commission; Mayor James R. Smith, William Bailey Lamar, national commissioner to the exposition; Arthur Arlett, representing Governor Johnson, and Thomas E. Hays, president of the New York Society of California.

Tomorrow the dedication of the exposition race track and the opening of the fair racing season will take place, the first program to be attended by a large number of guests.

President Moore will present a bronze trophy to L. L. Borden, vice-president of the Pacific Coast Horse Breeders' Association.

D. O. Lively, chief of livestock, will act as chairman of the day. An interesting feature will be the presence of Bud Doble, the "Grand Old Man of Harness Racing." Doble, who 60 years ago, drove Dexter to the trotting championship, will be the youthful guest being judged by Dr. W. P. Lucas of the University of California, who picked out the 50 most perfect from the crowds there. The race will be later examined by Dr. Frances S. Bradley, in charge of the United States department of labor, and here the winners of silver cups will be chosen.

THELEN BEGINS
DEPOSIT INQUIRY

Investigates Practice of Requiring Security Before Rendering Utility Service.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 4.—The railroad commission investigation into the practice of water, gas, electric and telephone companies in requiring deposits from consumers before rendering service, was begun before President Max Thelen this morning. By reason of the large number of witnesses on hand it was necessary to use the assembly room in the Pacific building for the hearing.

Representatives were present from the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company, the Peoples Water Company, the Spring Valley Water Company and many other corporations throughout the state. A whole battery of lawyers was on hand and a great deal of interest attached to the proceedings.

At the outset President Thelen placed himself on the side of brevity by announcing that it would be admitted that it was necessary for public utilities to protect themselves against people who made a practice of refusing to pay their bills, by requiring deposits. In this way at least 10,000 words were saved to the record.

It was arranged that the water companies should have the first inning, the gas and electric and telephone corporations to follow in the order named.

Considerable documentary evidence has already been placed in the hands of the commission and it is hoped that the hearing will be brought to a speedy conclusion.

SAN JOSE POLICE
BREAK UP GANG

Garden City Officials Claim
Arrests Will Halt Syndicated Thievery.

SAN JOSE, June 4.—With the arrest in this city of George Magnan, a former bellboy, and two secondhand men—Milton Eber of San Jose, and George Benjamin of San Francisco—the police here believe they have broken up a ring responsible for systematic thieving in San Francisco and this city. Police records, according to Officer Peter Benjamin of the Berthillon bureau, show that Eber was arrested in San Francisco in 1902 on two charges of burglary and that Magnan was taken into custody in 1907 in the same city for a similar offense. At three men were taken back to San Francisco last night by Detective Sergeant James Egan on a burglary charge. Magnan was arrested while on his way to this city for creating a disturbance and flourishing a pistol on a Southern Pacific train, but broke away and escaped after arriving in the local station. He was rearrested a half hour later. Eber was arrested while trying to obtain his freedom and Benjamin in turn was jailed while trying to get the other two out on bail.

SWAYS IN DEATH
GRIP FOR WOMAN

Protector Battles in Dark With Assailant; Horribly Wounded.

SAN JOSE, June 4.—Rinaldo Peini, a Swiss dairyman, was seriously wounded in a local hospital, and Joseph Rechli, an Italian aged 20, is in the city prison as a result of a fierce battle which followed at an early hour this morning, when Peini went to the aid of Miss Rosie Salazar of 240 San Augustine street. The young woman, according to her story, had gone to the front of her house to investigate a strange noise and that Rechli, who appeared to be under the influence of liquor and who was a stranger to her. At this moment Peini, a helper in the Salazar household, came in and the fight started, continuing down the street for two blocks. Rechli drew a knife and continued to slash at Peini in spite of terrific blows rained on his head by Peini and Miss Salazar. Peini's clothing was almost cut from his back and he was slashed on the face, throat, an artery and four tendons were severed on his wrist and one of his thumbs was almost bitten off. Peini was finally disabled and Rechli fled. An hour later he was caught emerging from the home of a friend, near the scene of the crime, where he had just washed the bloodstains from his hands and clothing. He had obtained a new hat to replace the one lost in the encounter. Later he declared that he had acted in self-defense and that he would have been killed but for effective use of his knife.

Peini feels that the first thing to be done is to provide a building which will be a community center. Hoping to provide a structure that will be a distinct addition to the attractions of Saratoga we have engaged a well known woman architect, Miss Julia Morgan of San Francisco. The encouraging progress of the movement so far gives promise that the proposed building will soon be an actuality.

FOOTBALL CLUB
PLANS NEW HOME

SAN JOSE, June 2.—Fifty women, members of the Football Study Club, have started a campaign to raise several thousand dollars for the purpose of constructing a clubhouse for community purposes at Saratoga, twelve miles west of San Jose. A site for the building has been donated by a public spirited woman whose name is withheld.

"The object of the organization is to further educational and social and civic work of the community," states Mrs. Lore Mills, president of the club. "We

EXPERTS WILL LECTURE ON POSTOFFICE WORK

Postmaster Rosborough has inaugurated a novel plan of instruction for the station superintendents of Oakland's eight classified and carrier stations, and one contract station. These, so far as the public is concerned, are postoffices within themselves, doing the same business in their respective locations as the main office does; while the superintendent is representative of the postmaster and must be thoroughly familiar with a general knowledge of postoffice business.

In order that they might attain a higher standard of efficiency, Rosborough has arranged a special course of lectures for his superintendents, by experts, specializing along certain lines of postoffice work. These lectures will be given at the main postoffice every other Friday during the summer. Questions will follow each talk, so that every angle of the subject will be thoroughly discussed in these meetings.

The first lecture will be upon "Parcel Post" this afternoon, and will be delivered by C. W. Seely, formerly superintendent of stations of San Francisco, and now head of the parcel post department of the Oakland postoffice.

VALUABLES STOLEN;
POLICE TAKE UP TRAIL

SAN FRANCISCO, June 4.—Discovering that some one had stolen the patterns of a valuable machine which her late husband had invented and built, Mrs. Peter Sass of 2305 Dolores street, hurried to police headquarters this morning fearing that an endeavor would be made to put the product on the market. Mrs. Sass believes that a trusted employee of her husband's has been responsible for removing the machine from the Thompson Machine Works, Howard and Heale streets. She learned only this morning that the invention had disappeared, and as it constitutes the chief legacy from her husband's estate, she is convinced that it is even more valuable than she at first supposed and has fallen into the hands of unprincipled persons.

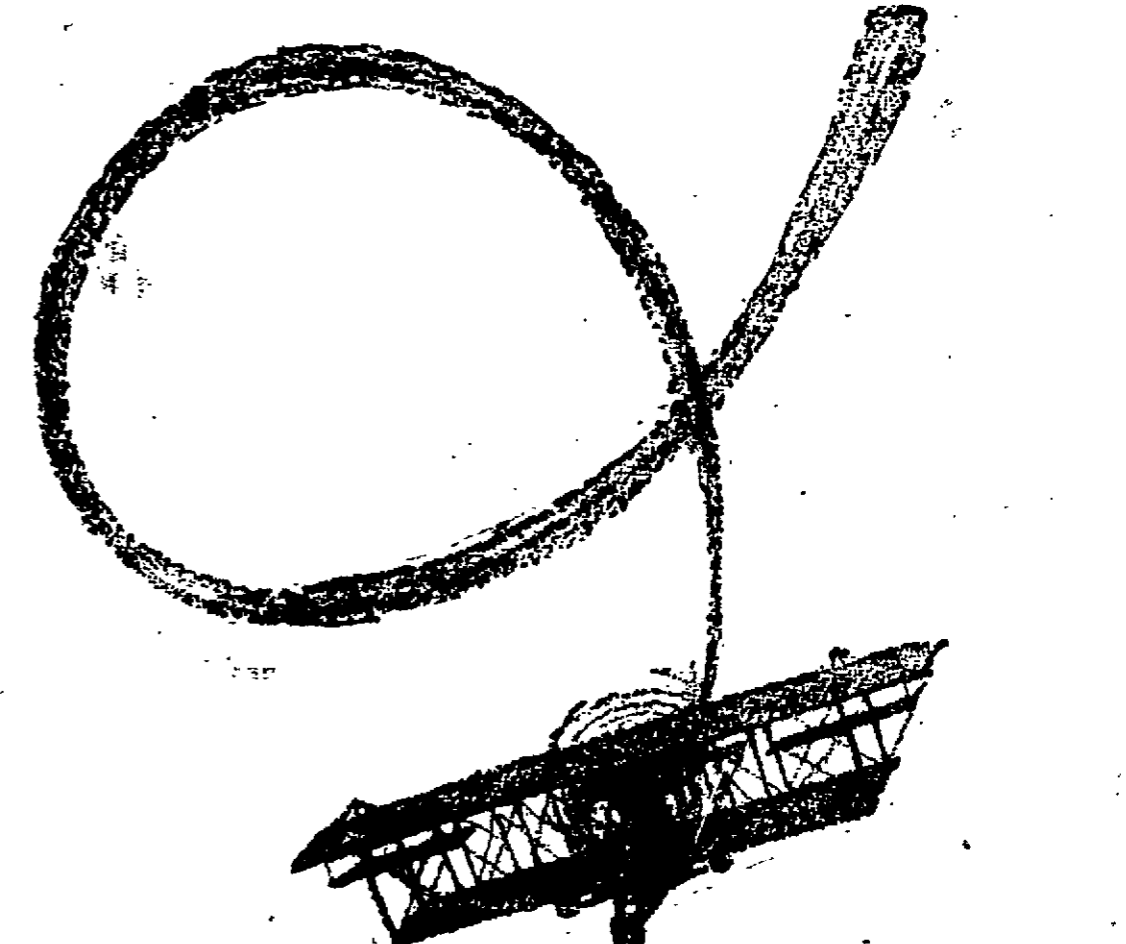

The machine is a surfacing and polishing device. She has no duplicate of the plans and is fearful that the thief or thieves may make slight modifications and apply for patent. She believes that her husband's invention will revolutionize the method of dealing with floors and will be worth a fortune. Several detectives were sent out with descriptions of the man whom Mrs. Sass suspects of the theft and will endeavor to locate the missing machine.

Sass died last month.

PICKPOCKET GETS CASH,
ALSO WATCH AND CHAIN

Lawrence Johnson, 511 Grove street, reported to the police that his pocket was picked while he was in a crowd on Broadway, of a purse containing $105, and that the thief also got his watch and chain. Johnson was unable to give a description of the thief. The police are investigating.

James Koss reported to the police that his dressing room in the Broadway theater was entered and a watch stolen. Isadore Olans, 1825 Telegraph avenue, reported that burglars entered his store during the night and stole five suits of clothes.

STATE TO PROBE BRITISH CLAIM OPIUM TRAFFIC ROUT OF MOSLEMS

Governor Orders Investigation, Neylan in San Francisco on Case.

Turning Movement in Mesopotamia Effective, Says Reports.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 1.—Charged with opium and other drugs, being protected in San Francisco by inspectors of the State Board of Pharmacy are being investigated by John C. Neylan, president of the State Board of Control, who has been in this city for the last two days conducting hearings and examining witnesses.

Mrs. W. G. Patterson, the so-called "Queen of the Opium Ring," and Tom Foe, "Chinese dealer in drugs," are among the witnesses examined by Neylan yesterday. The hearings are being held by Neylan at the headquarters of the State Board of Pharmacy in the Butler building.

Mrs. Patterson formerly conducted the Bellevue Hotel, 1902, Powell street, which has long been reputed to be the clearing house for the illicit traffic in opium in San Francisco.

Replied to Sutherland, Inspectors White, Scott and Carmack have made counter-charges against him, and the investigation now being conducted by Neylan promises to be productive of amazing disclosures.

The inspectors accused by Sutherland have directed Neylan's attention to the alleged fact that Sutherland was a poor man when he entered the service of the State Board of Pharmacy five years ago, and that he is now the owner of a string of flats at Washington and Powell streets.

Neylan, not content with sifting the charges being leveled at one another by the inspectors themselves, has also directed his inquiry into finding out if Sutherland and other officers of the police department have been granting protection to the drug peddlers. There have been vagrant charges to this effect, and the president of the Board of Control believes they should be investigated thoroughly.

James M. Oliver, who has offices in the Richmond Bank building, is attorney for the State Board of Pharmacy. He is expected to be called as a witness in the hearings being conducted by Neylan. Louis Zeh, secretary of the board, and other employees are also expected to give testimony.

SHELL FIRE FORCED TRAWLER'S SURRENDER

By Associated Press.
PENANCE, England, June 1.—The captain of the Belgian trawler Delta B. sunk by a German submarine off the coast of the island yesterday, states that after the crew had taken to the boats the commander of the submarine offered to take them aboard, explaining he was unaware that their craft was Belgian.

The submarine attacked the trawler by shell fire. It was not until the trawler had been hit several times and badly damaged, a boy being injured, that the captain abandoned efforts to escape and surrendered.

"LACK OF SYMPATHY" DROVE ITALY TO WAR

By Associated Press.
LONDON, June 1.—"In addressing to Serbia the note which was all known as the prime cause of this war," declared Lord Crewe, lord president of the council in the House of Lords yesterday afternoon "Austria-Hungary did not vouchsafe to extend to her ally, Italy, even the merest portion of affection. We now see what the results have been."

This lack of sympathy, continued Lord Crewe, in effect was the cause of Italy's joining the Entente powers.

GOLDEN SHEAF BAKERY GETS BREAD CONTRACT

BIG FUND LOANED.

SACRAMENTO, June 1.—When Governor Johnson signed orders permitting the state treasurer to deposit $164,000 with the various banks in California, the state funds loaned to financial institutions reached the enormous total of $10,851,000, and with the remainder that has been loaned, 2 1/2 per cent per annum interest is paid.

By Associated Press.
LONDON, June 1.—An account of recent fighting between British and Turkish forces in Mesopotamia was given out officially here yesterday as follows:

"After hostile columns which recently threatened us on the line of the Euphrates and Karun rivers had been successfully dispersed, as described in previous communications a combined naval and military attack was organized on the morning of May 21 against those remaining hostile forces in the position a couple of miles north of Kurna.

"Starting at 7 a. m. our troops partly by wading, partly by boats, landed on the river bank. The enemy's guns were soon silenced by our artillery. Excellent practice was made by naval guns and by a territorial battery.

"The heights occupied by the Turks were seized by noon and the dead bodies of 15-pound guns, complete with ammunition and nearly 200 prisoners in our hands.

"After harmlessly exploding several heavily charged mines discovered later in the river bed and on land, we continued to advance on June 1st, and found that the enemy had hastily evacuated his camps at Harban and Hattin, leaving a number of tents standing. He was observed retreating in steamers and native boats which were speedily pursued by the naval flotilla.

"By evening we reached a point five miles north of Esna's Tomb, some 32 miles north of Kurna.

"The Turkish steamer Bulbul was overtaken and sunk. We also captured two large lighters. One contained three field guns, ammunition, mines and about 300 prisoners. The pursuit was continued by moonlight.

"Our casualties have been trifling, about 20 in all."

AUSTRIANS FAIL TO DISLodge ITALY FORCE

By Associated Press.
UDINE, Italy, June 1, via Paris.—Austrian troops have made repeated efforts to dislodge the Italian forces which have succeeded in establishing themselves on Montero ridge, across the Isontio river, along the front north of the Gulf of Trieste. According to advices reaching Udine today, the Italians are still in possession of the ridge.

"The advance of the Italians across the Isontio has been accomplished in the face of unusual difficulties. In consequence of heavy rains, it was impossible to ford the Isontio, except for detachments of cavalry.

MASS MEETING URGES OBLIGATORY SERVICE

By Associated Press.
LONDON, June 1.—There was adopted at a mass meeting held in London under the chairmanship of Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst a resolution reading:

"That we men and women here assembled ask the government to establish obligatory war service for both men and women."

Mrs. Pankhurst declared that at least half a million German women were engaged in making munitions of war, and she urged all British men and women to register themselves at government agencies for such service as they were fitted to do.

HOLDS INQUEST OVER ZEPPELIN RAID VICTIMS

By Associated Press.
LONDON, June 1.—Contrary to the precedent set by other British coroners, in dealing with the victims of German air raids, the Loutham disaster, etc., a coroner sitting this afternoon after the third inquest held in connection with the recent Zeppelin air raid over London declared he could not see that anything was gained by returning a verdict of murder. Consequently he instructed the jury to find that "the deceased died from bombs dropped by hostile air craft."

DERNBERG PRESS BUREAU HEAD FOR GERMANS

By Associated Press.

POMONA, June 4.—That the stealing of a number of bath towels from a local hotel by members of a Los Angeles team, sounded the death knell to Sunday baseball in this city is the sentiment expressed by Mayor Vandegriff. The mayor said: "I am too tired to get out and because a majority of people enjoy a clean, wholesome game of baseball, but the Sunday games bring to the city a heavy loss."

MEAT SCARCE IN VIENNA

COW TESTING SOCIETY DECIDES TO DISBAND

WOODLAND, June 4.—The Yolo Cow Testing Association has voted to disband. So well satisfied have been the owners who signed up cows, and so plainly have the results been shown, that the promoters of the organization and others who have the welfare of the county at heart, in spite of great difficulties, that a sufficient number of cows would be signed up to make the cow testing association a permanent institution, but they have been disappointed. One thousand cows at least were needed. Not more than 500 were pledged or promised, though strong efforts were made.

PRECEDENCE CONFERENCE FOR PEACE BY PARADE

Preliminary to the peace conference to be held at Exposition next month, a peace demonstration by hundreds of men and women was today a picturesque event at the Exposition grounds. Making a pilgrimage from building to building, the peace promoters were met by hostesses and delivered addresses. These speeches, which were given from 1 o'clock in the afternoon until 3 o'clock, were made by members of the Women Workers to Promote Permanent Peace and their supporters. At the completion of each oration the orators and hostesses joined the ranks to march to the next building. When all the meetings have been held, the entire body will march to the exposition grounds to build the peace conference will be general. Among those who spoke this afternoon and who will again speak tonight were many distinguished delegates from various countries.

PRESIDENT WILSON HAS ABANDONED HIS SHIP PURCHASE PLAN.

The President, in explaining his speech of welcome before the Pan-American Financial Congress, says that he did not intend to give ground for the inference that he would again urge upon Congress the passage of the Government ship-purchase plan. As a matter of fact, the President said, the administration has no plan under consideration for providing ships for the overseas trade. However, he recognizes that this is a problem now confronting the people and one in which South and Central American countries, as well as the United States, is vitally interested. Then the President took the joy out of these statements by intimating that he expected private capital to invest in new ship lines with the navigation laws unamended and with the seaman's act on the statute books.

This is the first intimation the country has had regarding the attitude of the Democratic administration toward the ship-purchase proposition at the coming session of Congress. The fact that private capital cannot compete in business with a government with unlimited capital and taxing powers behind it probably did not influence the President to abandon the scheme. He may have been moved by the discovery, since the war started, that 6,500,000 tons of the total world's tonnage of 31,500,000 has been withdrawn from commercial use, either by internment or for military purposes; that when peace is declared, as surely must be soon, this 6,500,000 tons of shipping, together with the large number of ships now being built in Great Britain, will be released to engage in carrying the world's commerce, and that his ship-purchase plan could not hope successfully to compete with this great tonnage suddenly released to recover the maritime trade of Great Britain, France, Germany, Austria, Belgium and other belligerents. The Wilson ships would not be a drop in the ocean.

The President's lamentation that "a physical lack of communication, the lack of vehicles, the lack of ships, the lack of trade routes, the lack of those things which are absolutely necessary if we are to have true and intimate commercial relations with one another," is a situation created by the European war, shows a lack of perspective and of precise knowledge. There has been no difficulty in establishing trade routes where the trade between countries demanded it. Such routes always have been established and almost invariably by the ships of a country permitting maritime commerce to be carried on in the most economical manner. The United States has taken no part in establishing the great trade lines of the seas because ships under American registry cannot compete with ships flying the flags of European or Oriental countries.

American Government owned ships cannot hope for better fortune unless supported by a subsidy drawn from the taxes levied against the people of the country. The mention of "subsidy" is timely just now, because it has been injected into the proceedings of the Washington conference. Dr. Ricardo C. Aldoa of Argentina made the proposal that the United States and the South America republics form a permanent agreement for the purpose of paying subsidies to steamship lines owned in Pan-America and engaged in Pan-American trade. His proposal is supported by the other delegates from Latin-America and a committee has been appointed to investigate and report upon it.

ITALY AND BUSINESS.

Pertinent questions just now are how soon and how forcibly will the entry of Italy into the European war be reflected in the world's commerce and the commerce of the United States? How much will it augment the estimate, announced in Oakland the other day by Dr. Edward E. Pratt, that the balance of trade in favor of the United States during 1915 would reach $1,000,000,000?

The total exports from Italy in 1913, the last normal year on which to base an estimate, was nearly $500,000,000, and the imports for the same period was over $700,000,000. Before the war Italy's exports and imports were larger with Germany than with any other country. Her principal articles of import were $80,000,000 of wheat, nearly an equal amount of coal, $60,000,000 of cotton and $25,000,000 in hides. Her principal exports were nearly $80,000,000 of raw silk, about $40,000,000 of cotton manufactures, $25,000,000 of dried fruits and $20,000,000 worth of silk manufactures. Italy also has a mercantile marine of considerable importance. Sail and steam vessels aggregate about 1,200,000 tons and the clearance at Italian ports in 1913 were over $6,000,000 tons.

Aside from the merchant vessels drawn to military uses Italy's maritime commerce faces small danger of derangement. She will now purchase from the United States a deal of the products formerly bought of Germany and Austria and her demand for "war staples" may be estimated from the purchases of her allies.

It was the obvious purpose of the German reply to President Wilson's note in re the Lusitania, to divert attention to an incidental and technical issue. It was alleged that the Lusitania was an armed vessel; and determination of this point was made to appear the most important matter under consideration. Thus an incidental matter was brought into false focus, while the main issue was left to one side. It is inconceivable that President Wilson should be thus led away from the essential point in his presentment and brought to waste time and to confuse the discussion by concentration upon minor matters. It does, indeed, matter much, regarding the matter technically, if the Lusitania bore arms. But the American government satisfied itself at this point before addressing the German government and it ought not now to pause and count time because Germany finds pretexts for delay. The essential phase of President Wilson's letter was a demand for humanitarian practice in maritime warfare. His insistence was that non-combatants cannot lawfully or righteously be placed in jeopardy by the capture and destruction of unarmed merchantmen. Further, that Germany must recognize, as all other nations do, the obligations implied in the right of search. It is gratifying to learn from Washington that Mr. Wilson will stand firm for these propositions. He should demand prompt attention to them. To permit of delay, with Germany's submarine campaign still in operation, would be to palter with a grave issue. Germany should be required to declare her intentions; and if this declaration shall not satisfy the American demand, then the dissatisfaction and resentment of the Washington government should make itself manifest in measures both prompt and positive.

THE SINEWS OF WAR.

It is not difficult to define the reasons why the European war is lagging or to discover the cause of certain wholesale failures, especially on the Russian border. The combatant forces, Italy alone excepted, are shy at the point of ammunition. Modern guns eat up powder, lead, copper, steel and whatnot at a prodigious rate. In a single charge, a modern cannon consumes nearly a ton of metal and oftentimes costs anywhere from five to ten thousand dollars. Germany had on hand at the beginning of the war a prodigious supply of ammunition. Her factories, now working day and night, are of vast capacity. But the demand outruns the supply. England was not so well equipped at the beginning, and her present embarrassments are greater than those of Germany. France, despite heroic efforts, is short; Russia is even in a worse position. There is reason to believe that recent disasters to her forces on the Austrian border are due wholly to this deficiency. One among several reasons why Italy is marching where she will in Southwestern Hungary is because, coming fresh into the fray, after months of preparation, her ammunition chests are full. It is quite within the possibilities that the duration of the war, possibly even its final determination, may be decided less by the numbers and prowess of the combatants than by the capacity of the ammunition factories of the several countries involved.

Even when military policy seeks to economize ammunition, the waste is enormous. The vastly greater number of missiles, large and small, fall harmlessly and are lost in the earth. Not alone is it difficult by the working of factories to their utmost capacity to make good the losses in fighting. Transportation of ammunition is a colossal problem, especially in the case of Russia, where supplies must be carried over single lines of railroad and then by wagon over execrable roads. It is hardly too much to say of the present war that its ultimate developments depend as much upon ammunition factories and facilities for transportation, as upon soldiers in the field. In other days it was said that an army traveled upon its stomach. Today the measure of military operations is largely the measure of the ammunition train.

AS TO THE FUNCTIONS OF THE CORONER.

Coroner Miller, it seems, needs to learn the limitations of his official authority. He is not a community censor. It is not for him to determine what is and what is not proper for public information. Mr. Miller is not the first coroner to misconceive his official responsibilities. It frequently happens that things come to a coroner's office which the interest, real or imagined, of somebody requires or desires to be kept dark. It is further a practice of persons desiring suppression of unpleasant facts to make arrangements advantageous to the coroner. Instances have been known—at San Francisco and elsewhere—where considerable sums have been paid the coroner's office to this end. It is thus that a coronership oftentimes becomes a very lucrative post. At best, when a coroner takes it upon himself to sit in judgment in such matters, there is liability that he may be tempted into improprieties. Mr. Miller would do well to reduce his pretensions and thus avoid the possibility of mistakes. There is only one safe course for him and for others in public office, and that is, to mind their own business, leaving other considerations to those whose rights and privileges are, at least, equal to their own. We trust that Coroner Miller will take these admonitions to heart and that he will not in future set himself up as a public censor. He will do well to bear in mind that his office is a public one and that he has no rights in connection with its records, not shared by every citizen.

It is not for a layman to discuss the issues of law involved in the steel trust case decided yesterday by the United States District Court of New Jersey. Presumably the court knows the law and has laid it down correctly. But there is a phase of this case concerning which a layman may be quite as good a judge, or possibly a better, than any lawyer. It was sometime in the middle of President Taft's administration—about four years ago—that the petition denied yesterday was filed in the United States Court. For four years the matter has dragged along. The element of uncertainty involved in the issue has had very considerable effects not only upon the steel industry, but upon various kinds of business associated with it. The stock market has used to its own purposes and has made the pending case the basis for many ups and downs. To put it briefly, the fact that this case was before a United States court has been a disturbing influence in relation to business of many thousands of people for four years. This is the sort of thing that makes discontent and which breeds Socialists.

If the service which the Children's Hospital of San Francisco renders can be made more effective under University administration, then it goes without saying that there is good reason for turning over the institution to the Board of Regents. But if this change is a mere device to evade certain civic obligations, including those of public taxation, then the matter wears quite another face. Already there has been too much of this sort of thing. The exemption privilege of the University is not a thing which may properly be loaned or banded about in the aid of any and every cause, however worthy, which may wish to evade the tax collector.

If we had had a Jingo in the White House this country would now have been at war with Germany. Our chief executive who appreciates his responsibility and realizes that, considering the temper of the people, a turn of his hand would plunge us into an international conflict.

Thus spoke and wisely spoke ex-President Taft at Philadelphia yesterday. The declaration is that of a wise man and of a patriot—one who does not permit himself, upon the basis of partisan bias or resentful ill-nature, to oppose anything and everything done by a successor and by a man of another political party.

The recovery of the fortress of Przemyśl is a signal mark of strength on the part of the Teutonic allies in the southeastern theater of war. It is especially significant in respect of the fact that Austria is now confronted on two frontiers. Unquestionably the weakness of the Russian forces lay in their lack of ammunition. But causes are of little importance in such matters. What counts is results.

A WORD OF CAUTION.

San Francisco, June 3, 1915.
To the Editor:—Local newspapers have recently announced that a Belgian concert would be given in this city Saturday, 5th inst., in Native Sons Hall, "for the benefit of the Belgian fund," or "in the name of the relief of Belgian war sufferers."

As the announcement in the form published is likely to give the impression that the entire proceeds of the entertainment are intended for the Belgian fund, I feel it my duty to state that so far as I know, only a donation, of unspecified amount, to the fund has been promised by one of the artists, in case the concert should be a success. Trusting this communication may prevent a misconception on the part of your readers, I remain, dear sir, Yours very truly,

WATER COMPANY CASE MAY BE SETTLED

Loses Last Cent
to Wire Tappers

SAN FRANCISCO, June 4.—Although argument and the case will finally be submitted, there was a general feeling that the case would be settled today in connection with the reorganization of the Peoples Water Company, rumor has it that the several factions are about to settle their differences and arrive at a common understanding.

The taking of testimony, which has occupied the attention of Commissioner Edwin O. Edgerton for the past three weeks, was concluded at 11 o'clock this morning and Attorney W. E. Creed, counsel for the Peoples Water Company, immediately began his argument. He was followed early in the afternoon by Attorney J. F. Beck, representing the water holders' committee known as the J. F. Carlson committee.

Next in line are to go to Attorney Charles S. Wheeler, counsel for Rudolph Spreckels, who heads another element of the stockholders. Tomorrow Creed will be given an opportunity to make reply.

By Associated Press.
LOS ANGELES, June 4.—H. F. McCarter, aged 70 years, a native of Oregon, Idaho, reported to the police today that swindlers who operated the horse racing wire tapping game had robbed him of $600, every penny he owned. McCarter believes he was robbed by the same swindlers who robbed H. B. Trauman, a farmer from Kansas, to hand over to them $1500.

The bunco men showed McCarter the same table "loaded with about $1500,000 in gold."

Thereupon the old man sold his ranch in Carrey for $6000 and turned over every nickel of it to the swindlers, who promptly vanished.

DENY BANK PETITION.
SAN FRANCISCO, June 4.—Judge Graham yesterday denied the petition of the Union Trust Company to revoke an order which he made on May 10 last restoring to competency Charles H. Athearn, former bank teller and owner of race horses. Athearn has an estate valued at $40,000.

PLEADS FOR INCREASE OF NAVY

By Associated Press.
ANNAPOLIS, Md., June 4.—Rear Admiral Fiske, who attracted widespread attention by his statements to the House Naval Committee on the lack of adequate naval equipment, and who later retired from the office of aide for operations in the Navy Department, spoke at length last night at the Naval Academy luncheon dinner of the needs of the navy and the necessity of having a larger fleet.

"If we fear to do this, lest we incur displeasure and spoil our individual careers, we are unworthy of the uniform we wear, and we fail our country in her hour of need, just as effectively as if we deserted her flag in war."

With the example of the navy of the past to guide us, let us go where that example beckons; seeing with whatever clearness God may grant us, the thing we ought to do, holding honor, patriotism and duty before us as the shining stars of our endeavor; loyal to the cause we live for, faithful to our trust, untempted by the lure of place or power; to the end that we may worthily carry our flag upon the sea and securely guard our shores.

POSSIBLE ATTACK.
"Let us estimate the situation briefly, and consider first what kind of an attack we should have to guard against. Evidently an attack by one of the great naval powers is the only kind we need consider. What would be the character of the attacking force? Clearly the attacking force would be as great as the attacking power could spare. In order to insure its success and minimize its losses, this means that the attacking force would include battle cruisers, dreadnaughts, submarines, destroyers, mine depot ships, nine layers, mine sweepers, airships and aeroplanes, all fully manned and all strategically directed by a general staff."

"What have we with which to oppose this force? A smaller number of dreadnaughts, pre-dreadnaughts and destroyers than the enemy would bring; no battle cruisers, no effective scouts, one airship recently constructed for, only three good aeroplanes not yet ready, an embryonic aeronautical service; two mine depot ships, one mine layer and twelve mine sweepers; also about 45 submarines of all kinds and ages, distributed over the Atlantic and Pacific coasts, Panama, Hawaii and the Philippines, none of which have ever attempted tests like those so effectively performed in foreign waters now, and an inadequate merchant marine from which to get auxiliaries."

SHORT OF SAILORS.
"To man even this insufficient material, we have an enlisted personnel insufficient even in time of peace, and no trained reserves and no general staff, or similar agency to direct the whole."

"This means that, reasoning on the

Biggest Tribune Day So Says Idora Park

This year's Tribune Day will be the biggest of its kind in the history of Idora Park.

This is the prediction of Manager B. L. York, who today completed arrangements for the handling of the enormous crowds. That this Tribune Day is to far surpass even last year's is assured through a number of important circumstances. In the first place, there will be more attractions, for beside the five free concession tickets to be given the Tribune's guests, admitting them to five of the big features at Idora, there will be other free attractions—something for every man, woman and child visiting the great home of amusement.

TUESDAY, JUNE 15, IS THE DATE.

The tickets are free—will be given away at the Tribune main and branch offices and at some 200 Oakland and east bay city stores, and will entitle the holder to the special attractions offered. The Tribune's guests for the big day.

The tickets are already being distributed, and the list of stores where they may be obtained will be announced as soon as possible. The tickets will be of three kinds—one good for the morning until noon, the next set good for the afternoon and until 6 o'clock in the evening, and the last set good for the entire day.

HAYTI REVOLT RAGING FOR SUPREMACY

By Associated Press.
CAPE HAYTIEN, Hayti, June 4.—Hostilities between the revolutionaries and the federal forces are still going on. The most recent developments were the taking of Port Vertieres and Fort Pierre Michel by the federalists. The attack on Port Belair is proceeding. The revolutionaries are under the leadership of Dr. Robo. Their purpose is to oust President Guillaume.

CHIEF JUSTICE APPEALS FOR LIFE OF FRANK

By Associated Press.
OLYMPIA, Wash., June 4.—Urging that executive clemency be extended to Leo M. Frank, convicted of the murder of Mary Phagan, Chief Justice George E. Morris, of the state supreme court of Washington, has written a letter to Governor Montford of Georgia. Chief Justice Morris says in his letter that the action of the trial judge in receiving the verdict in the absence of the prisoner, the expression of the trial judge that he did not think the evidence sufficient to convict and the prejudice against Frank combined to deprive him of a fair trial.

POLICEMAN'S SLAYER GIVEN LIFE SENTENCE

SAN FRANCISCO, June 4.—Carl Felker and Otto Walker, charged with the murder of Policeman Edward Maloney, at Sacramento, and Davis streets on the night of April 18, were convicted yesterday by a jury in Superior Judge Cabanis' court. The jury found Felker guilty of murder and fixed his punishment at life imprisonment. Walker was found guilty of manslaughter.

After the verdict and while on the way to the city prison, Felker asked to be put in a different cell from Walker as he believed the latter would kill him. His request was granted.

STUDENTS AGAIN ASK FOR POWERS

Black and White at Berkeley High School Repeats Its Protest.

PERKELEY June 4. — Black and White, student publication which, with its advocacy of student control at the Perkeley high school has periodically aroused the feelings of the pupils of the school, has today published its first appearance of the year today. Across its front page is a cartoon of President C. L. Biedendach, whose resignation as principal of the school is being sought by the students, seeking to force back the wave of "student opinion." In the warb of court foul is a cartoon of a judge, who is the head of the athletic department of the school.

Black and White is mainly concerned in this issue with the fact that no resolutions have been passed by the students' petitions asking for the resignation of Biedendach and for the institution of student control. Editorially the students

"Who is going to give a few privileges to us when we have a man of Biedendach's type as head of our school?"

The principal who has the privileges only in name for the "Supreme Ego" knows the meaning of rights only when they concern him. The paper is furthered by Lloyd Lyle, president of the low senior class, writes not as radical as the first one, gets no results. The circulating of the petition is the "best piece of 'bonehead work' we expect to see. How can a person sign two petitions when one has a different viewpoint?"

STRONG OF RAG.

The paper makes a plea for the right to rag at school dances and accuses Biedendach of framing the slate in a "bonehead" way. "Some of the boys are running for office," it says, "on but not a few of the candidates who were up in scholarship were told at the last moment that they were not needed to run our school affairs. In other words, when it came to running the affairs of the class they would probably show that they had a mind of their own and would not be intimidated by the "Supreme Ego."

In stating the cause for the latest issue of the paper the editors say:

"We would place the entire blame on his (Biedenbach's) shoulders. It was within his power to grant the pupils a wider range of student control and to assign more responsibility to the board of education. That body did not compel him to usurp the student powers and prerogatives that have been gained under the administration of former principals."

The fight for student control at the part of the present semester. At one time when the students thought that Lloyd Lyle had been suspended a strike was threatened. A petition asking for Blodentbach's resignation was withdrawn by the pupils for one not so strong, asking simply for the institution of the student senate and systematic training of the preparation for commencement, and with the end of the school year at hand it was thought the matter had quieted until today's issue of Black and White.

Financial Estimates of Reserve Board Are All on Optimistic Side.

WASHINGTON, June 4.—Several business and trading conditions throughout the country as observed by the Federal Reserve agents of the twelve regional banks are set forth in the monthly bulletin of the Federal Reserve Board issued today. The bulletin states that in almost all of the agents, while others noted that the demand from Europe for war supplies was keeping many industries busy.

"There is a feeling of optimism in all lines of business in this district," said the Boston agent, "and a slight improvement in the cotton market and a recuperation of the shoe and leather trade."

The New York agent reported a reduction in the price of cotton.

"Throughout New York state farmers, fruit growers and dairymen anticipate a bumper crop. Factories producing goods for domestic use and for export are now ordering more in slowly. The manufacture of war supplies continues above normal. The coal and iron industries are unusually otherwise engaged, thus partly offsetting slack domestic trade."

San Francisco reported a "general feeling of mild optimism."

Agricultural prospects throughout the Southwest district are exceptionally bright, said the agent. "The recent rains in California, while interfering to some extent with early fruits, have been of great

THREE GIRLS CAMP IN LASSEN SHADOW

Daughters of State Superintendent Hyatt Brave Volcanic Perils.

SACRAMENTO, June 4.—Braving the dangers of Mount Lassen, the Misses Ives Shirley and Antonio Hyatt, daughters of Edward Hyatt, state superintendent of public instruction, have camped at the foot of the new volcano.

The young women left Sacramento last Sunday in an automobile, with sleeping bags and camping outfit. Today Superintendent Hyatt received the following message from his daughter, Ives June 4: "We are camped at foot of Mount Lassen, near Manzanita Lake. Big eruption 10 o'clock last night. Whole top of mountain burst forth in great explosion, shooting up like flames, belching red-hot material. Brilliant rocks rolled down mountain. Most spectacular."

All these girls are avid mountain climbers. They have climbed the roughest trails in the Yosemite and explored the Sierra northeast of Sacramento.

Three years ago, to conclude an outing in Northern California, they had a raft constructed and floated down the Sacramento river from Red Bluff to this city, a record feat.

MYSTERY SHAKES CARMEL; WOMAN'S HAT FOUND IN BLOOD POOL ON HIGHWAY

MONTREY, June 4.—Mystery surrounds the discovery of a broken buggy, shattered remains of a woman's straw hat and a large pool of blood in the road one mile west of the Hatton ranch in the Carmel valley.

B. Nicolas, well-known rancher, and others reported the gruesome find but all attempts to ascertain the details of the probable accident have been in vain. The road in the vicinity of the buggy, said the ranchers, had the appearance of being shattered, and it was feared that some woman had met with a fearful accident. The blood, it was said, had settled into the dust of the road, but was quite profuse.

No definite report of the accident could be obtained from any person in the Carmel valley.

BAD COIN MEN GIVEN SEVERE SENTENCES

SAN FRANCISCO, June 4.—Arthur Valin and Thomas Hutchinson, arrested Monday by Secret Service Operatives Moffitt, Foster and Costello, pleaded guilty yesterday in Federal Judge Dooling's court to the charge of counterfeiting. Valin was sentenced to five years and Hutchinson, who is only 17 years old, to four years in a reform school. Valin requested that he be imprisoned at Leavenworth, and as the attorney-general has consented, he will be taken there instead of to San Quentin. He had heard of the prison school at the Kansas penitentiary and wants to avail himself of the opportunity, so as to be able to make an honest living on his release.

Hutchinson will be taken to the Federal Reformatory School at St. Anthony, Idaho.

AUDITOR QUILTS PLACE FOR TIME

John R. Fewkes, "Blue Sky" Official, Awaits Probe of Jury.

SACRAMENTO, June 4.—John R. Fewkes, auditor of the corporation department, has temporarily resigned his position pending an investigation by the Los Angeles grand jury into charges of attempted bribery, of which one of the officials of the Deep Sea Exploration Company of Los Angeles is accused.

According to "Blue Sky" Commissioner Carnahan, Fewkes is absolved of all guilt in connection with a questionable transaction wherein the company sought to purchase for $500 a permit to sell stock. Carnahan denied the company a permit to sell its stock to manufacture a diving bell to descend to the bottom of the sea and search for lost riches. A broker named Treville, having offices in Los Angeles, agreed with W. P. Sullivan, president of the company, that he would offer $500 to Fewkes to obtain the permit.

Fewkes was not a party to the transaction, nor did he know anything about it, but he has resigned pending a settlement of the matter.

"We expect to be attacked from all sides by unscrupulous promoters," said Morris Brown, assistant commissioner today. "We are prepared, however, for every emergency and honest business need have no fears."

TO PROBE FERRY BOAT INCIDENT

Near Disaster on Bay Is Being Investigated by Government Officials.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 4.—Government officials are today investigating the causes of the near disaster yesterday, in which the Key Route ferry boat Fernwood came within four feet of crashing into the bow of the Southern Pacific boat Bay City, which was crowded with thousands of Alameda school children, bound for the Exposition.

The investigation is being made by Captain Bulger, local inspector of hulls and boilers for the government, and his two assistants, Joseph F. Dolan and James Guthrie. Captains John Lewis, of the Fernwood, and Donald McKechnie, of the Bay City, have been summoned to appear at the investigation, as well as a large number of men and women who were passengers on one or another of the two boats.

The Bay City was packed with school children. When the vessel was at a point on the San Francisco side of Goat Island, proceeding at a slow pace, the speeder Fernwood drew up from behind and is said to have steamed by within twenty feet of the larger vessel.

The Fernwood is said to have continued in its course, bearing in toward the Bay City. When part of the Fernwood crossed the bows of the Bay City, Captain McKechnie signaled for reversed engines, and stopped his vessel while the Key Route boat is said to have come within four feet of a collision.

Passengers aboard the Bay City complained to Bulger immediately after reaching the ferry building, and the investigation was ordered.

BAKER GUILTY, JURY'S VERDICT

Steamship Purser Convicted of Smuggling in "Opal Plot" Case.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 4.—Beginning with "straw ballots," the jury in the trial of F. V. F. Baker, purser on the steamship Victoria, yesterday brought in a verdict of guilty on both counts of the federal grand jury indictment charging the smuggling of $25,000 worth of opals and sapphires and the concealing of the smuggled gems. His presentation of the age-old defense, "the woman tempted me," served to delay the verdict no more than half an hour.

Judge Maurice T. Dooling set Saturday as the day for judgment. The maximum punishment is two years in a federal penitentiary and $10,000 fine, the minimum is $500 fine without imprisonment.

Mrs. Catherine Francis, the smuggler with the baby stare and manner of innocent simplicity, was called to the courtroom, but was not put again on the witness stand.

Mrs. Francis, wife of a gem dealer in Sydney, Australia, was arrested by Special Agent Tidwell May 1, after she had sold some of the opals smuggled into this port by Baker, April 23. She practically admitted her own guilt at the hearing before the United States commissioner, but shielded her accomplice. She declared that she had brought the 5000 opals and sapphires ashore herself in a steamer rug.

planned to Bulger immediately after reaching the ferry building, and the investigation was ordered.

DON'T USE SOAP ON YOUR HAIR

When you wash your hair, don't use soap. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is just plain mulsified coconut oil, for it is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats soaps or anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy, and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.
